A GOOD BEGINNING

Large Crowd Visits the Carnival Grounds.

A Big Parade, Illumined by Red Fire, Draws Out Thousands of People.

COUNTY FAIR BEGAN TODAY

The festivities of the Red Men fall carnival were ushered in with spectacular confusion last night when Old Paduke and his warriors landed at the wharf and were met by Mayor Yeiser and the city officials who turned the city over to them after having buried the hatchet and smoked the peace pipe.

The parade formed at First and Broadway and was headed by Dean's band followed by the Princess' float bearing the princess, her maids of honor, and Old Paduke. Following this were the city officials and policemen and then the cowboys, the Indians bringing up in the rear. The parade was a little late in starting but its gorgeousness made up for the delay and the anxiety of the waiting thousands to see it.

Red fire was burned the entire route from the river to the carnival grounds and the town was well lighted up. The merchants were in front of their stores, many of them burning red fire and so much was burned that the air smelled strongly of it for hours after.

The carnival people are pleased with the outlook and expect a rushing week. The demonstration last night was sufficient to show that Paducah is a good carnival town and will contribute her share to the attractions.

The crowd that saw the parade was one of the largest ever on the street here at one time.

The patronage of all the shows was quite good last night, considering the delay in getting started, and the fact that the weather was threatening and that it was the first night. Fifteen hundred and thirty-three paid at the gates, and the total number of those who went in, including those with passes and season tickets, was about 2,300.

Number that drew the ton of coal is 214. The second is 590 and the third 340. The first number is good until 6 p. m. today, the second until 6 p. m. tomorrow and the third until 6 p. m. Thursday.

Today the crowds turned out early, and many people came from other cities to attend. The weather has not been very conducive to large attendance but will probably not keep the crowds away.

Tonight the confetti will be turned loose. There is a large quantity on hand and it will contribute a great deal to the fun. The lights have been placed in and tonight there will be plenty of illumination.

Deal's band gave another enjoyable concert this morning. Tomorrow

VACANCIES FILLED

The New British Cabinet is Formed.

Chamberlain's Son Receives a Promotion and Broderick Goes Up.

MR. BALFOUR'S HOT LETTER.

London, Oct. 6.—The new cabinet is composed as follows:

Mr. Broderick, formerly secretary for war, succeeds Lord George Hamilton as secretary for India.

Austen Chamberlain, postmaster general, succeeds Mr. Ritchie as chancellor of the exchequer.

Alfred Lyttleton, recorder of Oxford, succeeds Joseph Chamberlain as secretary for the colonies.

H. O. Arnold Forster, secretary to the admiralty, succeeds Mr. Broderick as secretary for war.

Graham Murray, lord advocate of Scotland, succeeds Lord Balfour as secretary for Scotland.

Lord Stanley, financial secretary of war, succeeds Austen Chamberlain as postmaster general.

The duke of Devonshire, leader of the Conservative party in the house of lords, has resigned the office of lord president of the council, and the king has accepted his resignation.

The duke wrote Mr. Balfour, giving his reasons for his resignation, which he attributed, among other things, to the premier's speech at Sheffield and his pamphlet on insular free trade.

Of the new appointments announced tonight the most surprising is that of the Hon. Alfred Lyttleton as secretary for the colonies. Mr. Lyttleton is a man of acknowledged ability, and a good speaker, but he has had no ministerial experience whatever. He is better known to the colonies as a cricketer than a politician. He was for 15 years the champion tennis player and has won international football honors.

Mr. Lyttleton is related to Mr. Balfour by marriage. He has been twice married. His first wife was a daughter of Sir Charles Tennant, and his second is a daughter of Sir Archibald Balfour. He is a cousin of Herbert Gladstone and his brother, Sir Neville Lyttleton, is commander of the forces in South Africa. Mr. Lyttleton presided over the commission sent to South Africa to deal with the Boer claims, and he also took a prominent part in the Reid Newfoundland arbitration.

Although his appointment is likely to be keenly criticised, the new colonial secretary is almost sure of a hearty reception in the ministerial ranks. He is credited with being in full sympathy with Mr. Chamberlain's colonial policy and Lord Milner's South African ideas.

Austen Chamberlain's appointment to the chancellorship of the exchequer has been fully discounted.

Mr. Broderick's transfer to the India office will probably evoke the fiercest storm and much resentment in India, where the feeling will be that he has been sent to the India office because he was a failure at the war office.

Arnold Forster has always been a student of the question of defenses, and a strong critic of war office methods. If allowed free hand he should introduce drastic reforms.

Only one opinion is expressed in the editorials this morning on Mr. Balfour's letter, namely, that it is a manifestation of his dismay and disappointment at the loss of his most important colleague, and his sense of the damaging effect that the duke of Devonshire's withdrawal will have on his administration. FISCAL COURT MEETS Magistrates Adjourned Until Tomorrow Morning.

The Board Will Take Up the Control of Yeiser Park at Once.

THE POOR HOUSE QUESTION

Fiscal court met this morning and adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in order to give the finance committee time to audit the accounts and prepare a report.

In the matter of the city of Paducah and McCracken county, contract, relative to the court house yard, the county attorney and county judge were ordered to investigate and make a report this term of court. The council and board of aldermen refused to hold the contract good and ordered Yeiser park back into the care of the county.

The city several years ago leased the court house yard from the county for fifty years, and agreed to keep it in good condition, which it has not done for several years.

Furthermore, it does not intend to, and prefers that the county take charge of it, which the county has heretofore refused to do. It is probable a lively time will ensue.

A number of matters, but none of importance, will come up. An effort may be made to take further steps in the matter of selling the poor farm and purchasing ground outside the city limits.

Standard voices the party regrets that within six months a great party and a strong government have gone to pieces leaving only chaos, and it expresses surprise that Mr. Balfour has the idea of facing parliament with his cabinet so grievously weakened.

COLLEGE DOING WELL.—The West Kentucky college at Lone Oak has been opened for the winter season with about one hundred pupils. There are three teachers employed, among them being Miss Emma Morgan, of Paducah, who successfully taught in the public schools here. The enrollment in the college will increase within the next week and it is thought the institution will do even better than it did last year.

Mr. W. H. Smith, of Louisville, is in the city.

THE LIBRARY BOARD

May Now Hold the Building Indefinitely.

Demand Made of the City for the $1500 Appropriated, Which Was Refused it.

MUST PAY ALL BILLS

The first clash between city officials and the public library trustees is now about to occur. The board of trustees has decided to hold on to the library building until everything about it is paid for if they have to keep it five years.

Last night there was a meeting of the trustees and a resolution was introduced to turn over the building to the city at once, together with the bill of $1600 for the book racks. This was voted down, and instead it seemed to be the sense of the members of the board that the library building be held indefinitely, or until the city comes up with the $1500 appropriated for the library and promised the present board, so the building can be turned over to the city entirely free from debt.

The building is now about complete, and there is only one bill for which the trustees have no money. This is the bill of $1600 for the book racks, and the trustees claim that they would have never contracted this indebtedness had it not been for the assurance of the council that $1500 would be given the trustees by the city. All the other bills have been paid except this $1600. The board has enough to pay it should the city give up the $1500, and will have $25 or $30 besides to turn over to the city.

Yesterday, it is said, President G. W. Perryman, of the board, went to the city hall to secure a check for the $1500 appropriated for the library fund. It was refused him. It is understood the reason given by city officials was that the $1500 was ordered by resolution turned over only to the permanent board of trustees, those trustees to be appointed by the mayor after the building is turned over to the city by the present board, which is virtually only a building committee.

Rev. Perryman last night made a report to the trustees that the money was refused him and it was then decided to hold on to the building until the $1500 is paid.

"The building," said a trustee today, "will accordingly not be turned over to the city until the $1500 is turned over to the board."

The records of the library board show that June 11 a report was made to the board that Rev. Perryman had appeared before the council and demanded $3500 for this year as the part the city agreed to appropriate towards the maintenance of the public library when Mr. Carnegie donated the $35,000.

The city refused to give this amount but agreed to give $1500. On the strength of this, the trustees claim they proceeded to contract for the book racks, amounting to $1600, and now the city refuses the $1500 promised, although it is due and has been appropriated.

It would seem that the library is at last to get into politics. One explanation made for the city's action is that the mayor and administration are at loggerheads with some of the trustees, particularly the president of the board Rev. G. W. Perryman, who has been prominent in the reform movement directed against the Yeiser administration, and former Mayor James M. Lamb, who put Mayor Yeiser in office

WILL BE THE WIND-UP

Fifteen New Indictments in Post-Office Cases.

Men Under Charge All Well Known—Additional Indictments Against Others.

END OF THE INQUIRY

Washington, Oct. 6.—Fifteen new indictments were returned late yesterday in the supreme court for the District of Columbia, as the final result of the investigation in the postoffice department. Several of these findings were against persons who have already been indicted. The new indictments involve James N. Tyner, formerly assistant attorney-general for the postoffice department, and his assistant, Harrison J. Barrett; James T. Metcalf, superintendent of the money order system of the postoffice department; Norman Metcalf, son of James T.; Harry C. Hallenbach, president and general manager of the Wynkoop-Hallenbach & Crawford company of New York, the firm which for several years supplied the department with its money order blanks, and William Doremus, who is connected with a house which has been supplying a stamp cancelling machine.

There were additional indictments against August W. Machen, formerly superintendent of free delivery; George W. Beavers, formerly chief of the salary and allowance division; W. Scott Towers, who was in charge of a substation of the Washington city postoffice and State Senator George A. Green of New York. In some cases there were several indictments against one person.

Concerning the indictment against Tyner and Barrett, the following statement was made by the postoffice department:

"Three indictments charge Barrett with agreeing, while still in office, to receive fees for services rendered or to be rendered in cases pending before him as officer. All the indictments are founded upon the treatment by Tyner and Barrett of the so-called bond investment companies.

It is charged that it was the duty of Tyner and Barrett, assistant attorney-general and assistant attorney for the postoffice department, to investigate the methods of concerns charged with the improper use of the mails, and in case of guilt to report to the postmaster general and recommend the issue of a fraud order; that they investigated the business of the bond investment companies and learned that they were all carrying on a business that involved fraud or lottery or both; but that instead of recommending to the postmaster general the issue of an order that would prevent the delivery of mail or the payment of money orders to these concerns, Tyner and Barrett conspired to give them unobstructed use of the mails in order that Barrett might profit thereby.

Mr. Payne said today that all the evidence secured in the investigation had now been placed before the grand jury and that approximately thirty persons had been indicted. He said it had not been determined whether there were any administrative reforms needing legislation by congress, but two years ago and would give his head now if he hadn't done it.

The board will probably have a representative before the council at its meeting tomorrow night to again demand the $1500. It was to have been done last night but the council did not meet.

LIFE EBBED AWAY A CLOSED INCIDENT

Peaceful Death at St. Louis of Labor Leaders are Satisfied
Mr. Jas E. Robertson. With President's Answer.

Was One of Paducah's Best Known and Most Popular Business Men. There Is No Hostility of the Union Towards the Chief Executive of the Land.

REMAINS TO ARRIVE TODAY DEMOCRATS SCORE A FAILURE

Mr. James E. Robertson, the former druggist and newspaper proprietor, died yesterday afternoon at St. Louis at 3:30 o'clock in the Missouri Baptist sanitarium, after a several months' illness. While not entirely unexpected Mr. Robertson's death will be learned of with a great deal of sorrow by his many friends here and elsewhere.

Mr. Robertson's health began to fail about a year ago, and he had for the most part of the time since been in a feeble condition, frequently being unable to leave his bed. Recently he apparently improved and it was thought a summer at the various springs and lakes had built up his constitution to some extent.

At St. Louis a week ago, however, while returning from Mud Lava Springs, Ind., he became ill and gradually sank, the end coming peacefully yesterday afternoon. Erysipelas and typhoid were the immediate causes of death.

The deceased was born in Paducah and was 48 years old. He grew to manhood here, and became a druggist. He was for years a member of the old firm of DuBois & Robertson and traveled for the concern. Eight or ten years ago he sold his interest in the business and purchased the drug store of E. K. Wilson at Fourth and Broadway, running it until about two years ago, when he sold out to Dr. Alvey. He also became proprietor of the Paducah News, and managed it for several years. For the past two years he had been in the real estate business, but during the last several months on account of his health, was unable to follow any business.

Mr. Robertson owned considerable property in Paducah, and was a man in splendid circumstances. He was of a jovial disposition and was liked by all who knew him. He was 25 years ago married to Miss Nunn, who with one son, Mr. J. Stoddard Robertson, survives him. He also leaves a mother, Mrs. Anna M. Robertson, who was visiting in Opelika, Miss., when her son's illness became critical, and three brothers, Messrs. Lloyd and Byers Robertson of the city, and F. B. Robertson of Memphis. Mrs. Edward Reno, of Cairo, is his only sister.

Mr. Robertson was a member of Paducah lodge Elks and of the Travelers' Protective association and was a popular member of each. The remains will arrive from St. Louis this afternoon at 3:45 and be taken to his home at Sixth and Monroe streets and the funeral arrangements will be announced when his family arrive with the body. The burial will be under the auspices of the Elks.

MASONIC DEDICATION.

A LARGE CROWD EXPECTED AT LOUISVILLE.

The final arrangements for the dedication of the new Masonic Temple at Louisville have been completed.

The temple will be dedicated at 3 p. m., October 20. The building will be turned over to the grand master by W. O. McChord, of Springfield, Ky., chairman of the building committee. Grand Master John W. Landrum, of Mayfield, will deliver the dedicatory address. The children of the Masonic Home will furnish recitations, songs and drills for the program.

Previous to the dedicatory exercises the biggest Masonic parade ever held in Louisville will take place.

The souvenirs will be in the shape of a Masonic apron, with the program of the exercises printed upon it. The apron strings are of blue ribbon, and the apron itself of heavy cardboard. The whole makes a pleasing and unique souvenir.

COMES TO PADUCAH THURSDAY—Colonel Bud Dale, who is visiting in the county after a several years residence in Texas, will be in Paducah next Thursday and needless to say his many friends will be glad to see him. He has returned to Kentucky to live.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Washington, Oct. 6—The formal statement given out by the labor leaders is looked upon as the last of the agitation growing out of the much-discussed Miller case. The effort to make political capital out of the case, in the minds of the political advisers of the president, has failed utterly. The president, while perhaps not discussing labor questions in exactly the light which some of the extremists among the union leaders might desire, nevertheless has the support of men like Gompers and Mitchell, and they desire that the controversy end as soon as possible.

Both the administration and the labor leaders admit that they have made mistakes, and the mistake made on the part of the government brings out an interesting point. There has been a disposition to blame Mr. Palmer, the public printer, for taking the position he did in dismissing Miller from the service. The letter in which the dismissal was ordered said in so many words that he was dismissed from the government printing office because he was in ill odor with the book binders' union. It has been asserted repeatedly that dismissal could have been brought about in a half dozen other ways without a frank avowal that it was done at the command of a labor union. There were other good and sufficient reasons for dismissing Miller and they could have been stated without raising the issue.

The recent address of the labor leaders has been carefully considered in administration circles. Enemies of the administration have attempted to construe it into an assertion of hostility to the president, but leading members of the administration fail to place such a construction upon it. A member of the cabinet said today:

"The most careful reading of the statement issued by the heads of the labor organizations fails to show an intimation of hostility to the administration or the attitude the president has taken. Failure to recognize an 'open shop' in a government institution means failure to enforce the provisions of the statutes, the spirit of our constitution and our whole system of government. The president could no more recognize the union principle in a government institution than he could draw a religious line or a social line or a color line in such an institution. The president has the best of it in this particular phase of the subject, and I believe the union labor leaders of the country are too shrewd not to see this."

TRAIN ANNULLED

NO INTEREST IN THE EXCURSION TO WEST POINT.

The excursion train over the I. O. from Fulton to West Point on account of the army maneuvers was annulled here this morning on account of lack of patronage.

The train started at Fulton and made a stop at Mayfield and Paducah and was scheduled to stop at only one other place between Paducah and West Point, at Princeton, but on reaching Paducah there were only half a dozen passengers on board and the train was annulled. The passengers who were on the excursion train were taken through on the regular Fulton and Louisville accommodation passenger.

DEATH'S RELIEF

Mr. Paul Semonin Dies at Louisville.

Was a Brother of Mrs. Malloure, of Paducah, and a Prominent Man.

Mrs. Zoe Malloure, of Campbell street, has received news of the death at Louisville of her aged brother, Mr. Paul Francois Semonin, a retired tobaccoist and steamboat man, whose death was due to paralysis. The last stroke he had was about a year ago.

Mr. Semonin was born twelve miles from Paris, France, September 17, 1829, coming to America when but 5 years old. He built three boats later in life—the Curlew, Eddie Kerr and Gov. Powell. These steamers operated many years in the Ohio, Mississippi and Red River trade, and made money rapidly for their owner. Mr. Semonin sold out his boats after the war and went into the leaf tobacco trade, which he continued in Henderson until 1868, when he went to Louisville.

During his career he made and lost two or three fortunes. He started the trade in 1874 by an extensive deal in leaf tobacco, in which his profit was about $120,000. Mr. Semonin leaves six children and four grandchildren. The children who survive him are all well-known Louisville people. They are: W. J. Semonin, county clerk; Mrs. R. E. Gilbert, Mrs. T. P. Young, Miss Minnie Semonin, principal of the Colombian school; Miss Jean Semonin, a popular teacher in the city schools, and Miss Celeste Semonin, the youngest daughter. Two brothers, both successful men, also survive him. They are John Semonin, Carmi, Ill., and Seraphine Semonin, of Evansville, Ind.

ELIJAH JUBILANT

He Expects to Cop Out $50,000,000 in New York.

Will Build Two More "Zions" in the United States.

Waukegan, Ill., Oct. 6—John Alexander Dowie expects that as a result of his invasion of New York next week $50,000,000 will pour into Zion's exchequer. So positive is he that this will occur that today he announced to his people at Zion City that as soon as the crusade is over he will begin plans for the establishment of two more Zion cities. One will be on the Pacific coast, the other on the Atlantic. He states that he has practically decided upon the western location, but he is looking about for a desirable site for the Eastern. These cities will be patterned after the Illinois Zion, which Dowie says is the only model city ever known. These cities will be in existence inside of five years. After this Dowie says he will not be satisfied with converting large cities like New York, but will go after whole states at a time until he has converted to Dowieism all of the states. He did not say which state he would go after first.

BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXIONS

Are spoiled by using any kind of preparation that fills the pores of the skin. The best way to secure a clear complexion, free from sallowness, pimples, blotches, etc., is to keep the liver in good order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver, and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

ALL COLORED

Judge Sanders Had a Number of Offenders Today.

Several of Them Went Free—Only a Few Fines Assessed.

The defendants in the police court today were all colored.

Charles Kilgore and Joe Boyd, colored, were charged with vagrancy, but they proved that they had been working steadily until about Saturday. The police had never seen them working, but neither do the police ever see the saloons open on Sunday. If every man whom the police never see do any work were arrested, the police court room would not hold them. Judge Sanders promptly dismissed the warrants.

James Gray was fined $10 and costs for violation of the Sabbath.

Al Davidson was fined $1 for a plain drunk, while Allen Walters, alias "Dummy" and Silas Adams were dismissed as they only had about the amount of fun usually allowed on carnival days.

Dona Beale and Daisy Lowe were fined $3 and costs each for a breach of the peace. The Beale woman protested that they did nothing, and called Prosecutor Gilbert "captain."

"Now look here," remonstrated the court, "you have been here often enough to know better than to get so familiar with the officers of this court. The attorney is no 'captain' of a steamboat, military company or anything else."

"Yaas sah," sheepishly grinned the witness, "I only means, judge, dat he's capt'n of me while I'se swahin' in de co't."

A breach of ordinance case against Clint Riley was continued until Monday.

Hallie Owen was dismissed on a charge of using insulting language and advised by the court to mend her ways. Leo James, colored, attempted to take the Sleeth drug store and to break up the crowd at the merry go round at Ninth and Broadway. It cost him $5 and costs.

$25,000 DAMAGES

Suit Filed by Administrator of J. O. Hollis.

He Was Killed on the Cairo Extension Last Spring.

F. G. Radolph, administrator of J. O. Hollis, today filed a suit in circuit court against the Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans Railroad company for $25,000 for the death of Hollis.

Hollis was an engine foreman on the railroad during the course of construction of the Cairo extension and while riding to town one day last spring was killed by jumping from the car of the switch engine which was derailed near Maxon's Mills.

A breach of the peace case against Annie Cox was dismissed.

FOURISHED PISTOL

WARRANT SWORN OUT AGAINST ROBERT HALE.

Tom Martin, colored, today went before Judge Sanders and swore out a warrant for Robert Hale, colored, charging him with drawing a pistol, flourishing it and pointing it at him. The alleged offense was committed several weeks ago, and Hale has been out of the city, it is understood.

BECAME DOG

MOORE SAYS WHISKEY AND CIGARETTES RUINED HIM.

Deputy Sheriff George House last night took John Moore, yesterday adjudged insane, to the asylum. Moore had not been violent since he was captured and smoked cigarettes nearly all the time. He says himself that there is nothing the matter with him but cigarettes and whiskey.

THE SHEEP BITER.

Find a Wolf.

A certain Shepherd had a Dog in whom he placed such great trust that he would often leave the flock to his sole care. As soon, however, as his master's back was turned, the Cur, although well fed and kindly treated, used to worry the Sheep, and would sometimes kill one and devour a portion. The man at last found out how much his confidence had been abused, and resolved to hang the Dog without mercy. When the rope was put around his neck, he pleaded hard for his life, and begged his master rather to hang the Wolf, who had done ten times as much harm to the flock as he had. "That may be," replied the man, sternly, "but you are ten times the greater villain for all that. Nothing shall save you from the fate which your treachery deserves."

300,000 RATS.

HAVE BEEN KILLED IN PLAGUE INFECTED DISTRICTS.

Marseilles, October 6.—The authorities that tried to hush up the existence of the plague are liable to be sent to jail for long terms. President Loubet's commissary will prosecute them in person and leave no stone unturned to punish the guilty. The plague was introduced from Asia Minor and the health authorities fear that Constantinople will likewise receive a visit from the dread disease. It is estimated that in the harbor districts over 300,000 rats were killed since the arrival of the Paris commissioners. The plague ship was burned to the water's edge, then taken out to sea and destroyed by dynamite, whereupon the wooden planks were gathered up and likewise burned. Simultaneously the city has been forced to expend a million francs for cleaning up the most neglected portions of Marseilles. The antipneumonic serum is doing wonderful work. Not a single one of the affected persons has died so far.

I tried Doan's Kidney Pills getting them at DuBois & Co.'s drug store. BEST IN THE WORLD

LABOR STATISTICS SHOW THAT LABORING MAN FARES WELL.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Mr. Carroll D. Wright, labor commissioner, has just completed and sent to the public printer the manuscript, in two volumes, which discuss at length and in detail the conditions surrounding the laboring people of the United States. From its pages come striking examples of conditions in this country and some comparisons with what they are in foreign lands, will be drawn. Most important will be a specific showing that the laboring man fares better at this time than at any time in the history of the United States.

It has been asserted, and in some quarters where it was supposed that experts testimony was being given, that the cost of the necessities have increased 27 or 25 per cent in the past five years. The statements of Mr. Wright, taken from actual returns and from government reports and special investigations, will show that instead of this being the percentage, it does not exceed 15 or 17 per cent. The publication will also show that the increase in the price of commodities has not been disproportionate to the increase of the wages of the laboring man and the employees of the great industrial concerns.

SEVEN MONTHS A PRISONER.

Owensboro, Ky., Oct. 6.—Bessie Arms, the sixteen year old daughter of W. H. Arms, who was abducted seven months ago by a woman, and who was arrested in Atlanta, arrived home today without a cent of money. She says that she tried to write home many times, but that the woman who had charge of her would destroy the letters. She said the woman was arrested at Nashville for grand larceny and jumped her bond. Her bondsmen followed and caught her at Atlanta. The girl says that they traveled all through the south and stopped at the best hotels and never paid a bill.

KILLED IN TENNESSEE.

Madisonville, Tenn., Oct. 6.—"Hick" Rose, who recently made his escape from the Monroe county jail at that place, shot and killed Thomas Morton, a well-to-do citizen, and perhaps fatally wounded Doley Dugan. The two men were members of a posse that had surrounded Rose at Jolappa, twelve miles from Madisonville. Rose is a nephew of Mack Rose, who shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Griffiths, in London county, September 26. A sheriff's posse is now in pursuit of Hick Rose.

Ora Ross Taken Back to Cairo Today.

She Declares She Will Run Away with Another Show as Soon as Possible.

Ora Ross, or Rose, the young Cairo girl who was arrested here yesterday morning for running away from home with a carnival man, was turned over to her mother last night at 8:30 o'clock and was this morning taken home.

It seems from the Cairo papers that the girl had been missing from home three days prior to the time the carnival company left Cairo. The girl claims she came to Paducah Sunday morning via Fulton and had gone to three hotels in Cairo and registered under an assumed name with other women, in order to avoid suspicion. She stated before leaving that she did not intend to remain at home any longer than she could help, but intended going out with some show company at the first opportunity.

THE STORM CENTER

Many Conferences at Mayfield are Reported.

The Sam Clark $800 Parole Is What Is Worrying the Democratic Machine.

NO DENIAL MADE YET

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 6.—There is much talk among Republicans about the continued delay of Governor Beckham to make public denial of the charge made by Captain J. C. Speight at Princeton two weeks ago that a parole had been obtained for a Graves county man in consideration of $800 contributed to the campaign fund. Captain Speight said distinctly that the money was paid to persons who claimed to represent Governor Beckham, and had promised a pardon for the contribution. The pardon was not issued, but the man was turned out on parole and has left the state.

Although Governor Beckham has not denied this in public, it is known that Mayfield has been alive with consultations during the past ten days and that persons having knowledge of the alleged transaction have been conferred with to see what statements they would sign that would furnish the basis of any denial that may be in preparation.

Captain Sam Norman, who is the storm center of Democratic interest in the matter, has made a statement, it is reported, in which he denies that he ever told Captain Speight anything upon which to base the charge. This, it is evident, does not meet the case. Captain Speight has never used Captain Norman's name and has never spoken on the subject with him. There are a number of persons who contributed to the pardon fund, and there has been much indignation over the failure to carry out the promise made by somebody to these contributors.

LABORED HUMBLY

ALTHOUGH HE WAS A MEMBER OF THE POPE'S HOUSEHOLD.

St. Louis, Oct. 6.—Dressed in the simple costume of a Catholic priest, the Rev. Father Caesar Spigardi has for eight years labored among the Italians of St. Louis, keeping as his own secret the fact that he is a member of the official household of the Pope, a monsignor, and entitled to wear the garb of a chamberlain of honor.

The fact became known through the issuance of the official roster of the Roman Catholic church, which had this reference to the St. Louis priest: "Caesar Spigardi, monsignor, camerieri d'onore in Abito Pavanazzo, November 2, 1892."

When seen Father Spigardi was somewhat embarrassed that his secret had become known, but admitted that Pope Leo XIII. had conferred the honor upon him three years before he came to America. The rank of Monsignor was conferred upon him in recognition of his achievements in leading three pilgrimages of Italians of the working class, one of 11,000 persons to Castiglione Delle Stiviere, one of 3,000 to the House of Loretto and another of 4,000 to Rome. Bishop Sarto, of Mantua, now Pope Pius X. was concerned in the first pilgrimage.

Father Spigardi said he had never mentioned the matter in St. Louis, as he desired to labor as a common priest, that there might be no ground for anyone asserting that he was taking undue dignity to himself.

Liquid Kidney Remedies Contain Dangerous Alcohol

MRS. REBECCA T. SAULTNER WAS CURED AFTER YEARS OF KIDNEY TROUBLE.

Aug. 26, 1903, Mrs. Rebecca T. Saultner, of 1770 Girard Ave., Minneapolis, Minn., wrote: "For a long time I had severe pains and lameness through my kidneys with brick dust deposit in the urine. Years ago I had a similar attack and was cured by using Dr. Pettingill's Kidney-Wort Tablets, which relieved me at once, and I am now in perfect health. No one need suffer from kidney troubles when they can secure Kidney-Wort Tablets."

"We could not hold our intelligent class of patrons a day," said one of Boston's high class druggists, "if we sold liquid kidney remedies that we know contain dangerous alcohol. We do recommend Kidney-Wort Tablets, because the Tablets are free from alcohol and prepared from a well-known prescription of Dr. Pettingill. Every day we hear from persons who have been cured by Kidney-Wort Tablets."

REPUBLICANS NOT NOTIFIED.

Many of the polls this morning had no Republican representatives when opened for registration. This is to be regretted, but it may not after all, if everybody work the harder, militate against the success of the Republican party. Many persons are likely to be blamed for the failure of Republican election officers to be on hand, but it appears after an investigation that the election board of the county, a majority of whom are Democrats, failed to complete or turn over to the sheriff, the list of election officers in time for the sheriff to notify them.

As the election commissioners have heretofore selected and announced the names of election officers in ample time for them all to be notified, it follows that they could have done so this time. They didn't do it, and as a majority of the board are Democrats, it is certainly the fault of Democrats that the list was not completed in time to notify the officers, and is up to them to explain it if they can. This theory, of course, is based on the presumption that the statement given out at the sheriff's office that the list was not furnished him until yesterday afternoon, is true. If this is an error, and the list was furnished the sheriff,
who is also a Democrat, in time, then it is the fault of the sheriff that the Republican officers were not notified and it is still up to the Democrats to explain. It was the duty of the sheriff, and no one else, to notify these officers, and whatever the reason for the failure to notify them, the Democrats seem to be responsible for it.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

Much depends upon the meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association at Evansville, Ind., Oct. 14 and 15. The utility of the Ohio river as a great waterway capable of transporting billions of dollars of the country's commerce annually has been impressed new in the last two years by the infrequent facilities of the railroads.

That the river should be capable of use at all times is demonstrated now
as never before.

It is incumbent upon the interests closely associated with the river to bend their strongest efforts toward getting from Congress the money necessary to improve the river. In comparison with the cost of the contemplated improvement the benefits will make the increased utility of the river pay tenfold for the investment.
Not only will the great producers of the Ohio Valley and the headwater districts have ample freight facilities, but a navigable stream the year around for heavy barges will develop new fields of industry which can be maintained on the natural resources of the valley. The greatest steel district in the world lies at the head of the Ohio,
and all of the steel for the countries abroad would pass down the Ohio if its consignors were certain that it would reach its destination without hindrances of low water. Thus would the Ohio become a waterway for international traffic.

It is seen that the Evansville meeting is in a position to do much toward accomplishing the desiderata of Ohio improvement. The time is opportune to push the question of appropriations.

A gathering representative of all the interests that can help the question of improvement will be at the Evansville meeting. Rivermen, business men, legislators—all will be there and will lend their peculiar abilities to drafting a strong appeal to congress. It is hoped Paducah will send a large delegation. At least ten or a dozen should go from here as representatives of the various business interests.

It is very commendable in the police to begin rounding up the vagrants, even if it is registration day and the accused are likely to all be negroes.
The official enterprise is bound to respond to the welfare of the city and the credit of the police department.
Of course it is the first time there have been any vagrant negroes in Paducah. They have just struck the town, and the police, ever on the alert, will be on hand to nab them and put them in the lockup. After they have locked up all the colored vagrants, it is understood they will attend to the white ones. They will by that time be able to recognize the numerous white bums who haven't done a lick of work since the free lunch counters started, and who hang around saloons day and night "mooching" drinks. It is very gratifying to know that the police have at last decided to weed out these parasites. Their perception is improving so that possibly in the course of time they will be able to see a saloon open on Sunday.

The people of Paducah should give the Red Men's festival and the county fair a liberal patronage. Both will help the city. They have brought many strangers here and will attract many more before the week is out, and it is due the people to accord them encouragement and some measure of reward for the enterprise displayed in bringing them here. It is the last time before next spring that the people can enjoy open air recreation, and in the afternoon when the races skirt the track and in the evening when the confetti flies in the carnival grounds, there should be large and enthusiastic crowds on hand to enjoy it.

Sam Parks, the convicted labor agitator of New York, was downed in the convention at Kansas City, but he is dying hard. The sooner laboring interests get rid of such rubbish the better for them and the country.
Parks is now threatening to show his resentment by calling a strike of about 3,000 men employed on the East River bridge—for no reason except to show what an unscrupulous menace he is to both labor and the country at large.
He should be repudiated by all honest laboring men.

News from all parts of the State is most encouraging for Col. Belknap.
Republican organization is being completed everywhere, and Col. Belknap gains popularity every day.

It seems that Paducah is going to have the usual row that follows in the wake of public libraries. It seems that a city that can escape it is indeed fortunate.

Gen. Miles magnanimously explains that he is not seeking any office.
It would be interesting to see what would happen if he were.

It is not too late to register. The polls will remain open until 9 p. m.
If you have not registered do so at once.

Louisville promises to show a handsome majority for the Republican ticket in November.

morning the following program will be rendered:

"Hiawatha."
Overture, "Cavalier"—Rollinson.
"Sun Dance."
Intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana."

"Pochahontas."
Waltz, "Daughter of Love"—Bennett.

"Sioux War Dance."
Song, "The Girl with the Dreamy Eyes."

Finale, "Laughing Water."

"A TRIP TO WONDERLAND."

The best attraction at the carnival is "A Trip to Wonderland," and the "Life of a Paducah Fireman." It is a clean, refined and novel performance and truly deserves the good patronage it receives. It is the best show of its kind ever seen in this city.

A large crowd is attending the county fair today and many others will go out during the week. It is the first fair held in Paducah in several years and it is hoped the people will turn out and help make it a success. The promoters desire to give the people a genuine old time fair, and will do it, and improve it yearly if the people will give them the support they deserve.

The races for today are:

First race—Derby, 3-4 mile dash, running, $65, $25 and $10.

Second race—3-minute trot or pace, three in five, mile heats, $65, $25 and $10.

Third race—1-2-mile heats, two in three, $50, $12.50 and $7.50.

Fourth race—Green plow horse race, 1-2 mile, $5.

LARGE CROWD

MANY PEOPLE ENJOY THE PAY-TON SISTERS.

The Three Famous Payton sisters and their own big comedy company opened their week's engagement at The Kentucky last night to a large and appreciative audience and in spite of the large crowds on the streets and at the carnival the audience was very large and went away more than pleased. The Payton Sisters made a big hit in their work and their gowns were commented on very favorably.
The specialties were the best ever seen with a repertoire company in Paducah and in fact the Payton sisters deserve big business as they have a very good show indeed. They lay off tonight giving way to The Walter Jones Comic Opera company in "The Sleepy King," but open again Wednesday with a matinee presenting "Flirtation" and "Little Alabama" Wednesday night, and then finish out the week with a repertoire of new plays and specialties. The Walter Jones
Co. arrive at 6:30 p. m. today.

WAS IT A SKIN GAME?

Republican Election Officers
Not Notified by Sheriff.

Many of the Polls Have Been Without Republican Representation.

MUCH CONFUSION AT POLLS

Few, if any, of the thirteen polls in the city opened at the appointed time this morning for registration. At some of them there were scarcely any of the election officers who had been appointed. It seems, from reports, that the Republican election officers, particularly, had been left in the dark as to their appointment, as according to reports none of them had received notice of his appointment.

Some of the polls did not open until 7:30 or 8 o'clock. There was the greatest confusion in some places, and various persons were blamed for the chaotic state of affairs that existed all over the city.

It is the duty of the sheriff to notify all election officers of their appointments, and it would seem that if the gentlemen appointed to serve were not notified, it was the fault of the sheriff.

Sheriff Lee Potter was not in the city when a reporter called at his office to ask if the officers had been notified, having left for Eddyville with a prisoner. His deputy, Mr. Will Lydon, however, stated that the reason the officers were not notified, was that the election commissioners had held several meetings but had never furnished the sheriff with a complete list of the election officers until yesterday afternoon. They then, according to the deputy, furnished the sheriff with the list, including 53 names, and it was impossible to notify them before 6 o'clock this morning.

They did the best they could with the short time they had, the deputy claims, and placed notices in the papers.

While complaint came from the Democrats to some extent, the election board is composed of two Democrats and one Republican, and it had the power and plenty of time to meet and select the election officers in time for all to be properly notified. It is up to the Democrats to explain why it was that none of the Republicans seemed to be on hand in sufficient numbers to run things to suit themselves. The two Democratic members of the board,
Mr. J. C. Flournoy and Sheriff Lee Potter, could have insisted on a meeting in plenty of time to agree on a list of officers. Sheriff Potter, as sheriff of the county, knew that it was necessary to have time to notify the officers, and should have so informed the other members of the board and insisted on an earlier completion of the list,
if it was not completed until yesterday, as is claimed. The whole proceeding is very peculiar, to say the least,
and never happened before in this county.

Chairman R. G. Caldwell, of the Democratic city committee, stated that he had been called to several precincts to straighten things out on his side and see that the registration was started. He seemed to blame the sheriff, saying that he asked several of the election officers who were finally found and installed, if they had received any notice, and they informed him that they had received no notice of any kind.

A FACT ABOUT THE "BLUES"

What is known as the "Blues" is seldom occasioned by actual existing external conditions, but in the great majority of cases by a disordered LIVER.

COUNCIL DID NOT MEET—The council did not meet last night on account of the city dads participating in the big carnival parade but will meet tomorrow instead. The board of aldermen will follow Thursday making the two sessions follow in immediate succession.

REVIVAL AT LITTLEVILLE—The revival services at Little's chapel in Littleville, conducted by Rev. T. J. Owen, are continuing with interest, and there have been five additions to the church. Rev. W. C. Sellers of the Third street Methodist church is preaching this afternoon and services will be held tonight at 7:30.

DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS BROKEN—Several days ago Mr. J. B. Ooms received a slight fall at the N. O. & St. L. carpentering department here, but did not think he was hurt to any serious extent. He has now discovered that a rib was broken, and it will disable him for a few days, if not longer.

THE GOODS FOUND—Some of the horsemen at the fair grounds complained to the police today that they had given some express drivers a large quantity of goods to be hauled to the stables, and had never heard of it since. They thought the expressman had made way with it, and as it was worth about $300 they were somewhat worried. Marshal Crow made an investigation and the stuff was found at the depot. The expressman, it seems, had carried the load to the grand stand at the fair grounds instead of the stables, and no one knew anything about it.

A LONG TERM

BITS OWENS STARTS AN EIGHT YEAR SENTENCE.

Sheriff Lee Potter left this morning for Eddyville with Bitts Owen, white, who will be placed in the penitentiary today beginning an eight year term. Owen robbed Mark Atkinson here last winter of 50 cents and a pocket book and was convicted. He took an appeal and the court of appeals confirmed the judgment of the lower court. The mandate arrived last night and the prisoner who had been in jail awaiting the appeal, was ordered to the penitentiary.

Miss Katie Helm, of Danville, Ky., who had been visiting the family of Rev. G. W. Perryman, returned home today at noon.

BREAK THE FAST

THE MORNING MEAL SHOULD NOT BE MISSED.

After a night's fast the stomach should have some food for breakfast to sustain mind and body during the morning. It should not be a heavy meal but wise selection will pay immensely.

A young Los Angeles woman says: "For years until I used Grape Nuts I have never been able to eat breakfast for eating in the morning was always followed by terrific sick headaches and my stomach has always been delicate."

"Some time ago a friend urged me to try Grape Nuts food and I began eating it every morning. As a result of its steady use I have gained 11 pounds and the headaches have disappeared entirely and my weak stomach has become normal and strong. All my food digests and I now perform my daily duties with a renewed cheerfulness and energy. Evidently I had been eating the wrong food but Grape Nuts soon put me right." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Look in each package for a copy of the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

LIKE FINDING MONEY.

LANG BROS. OFFERS POPULAR MEDICINE AT HALF PRICE.

Lang Bros., the popular druggists, are making an offer that is just like finding money, for they are selling a regular 50c bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price. In addition to this large discount they agree to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is quite unusual to be able to buy 50 cent pieces for a quarter, but that is what this offer really means, for it is only recently, through the solicitation of Lang Bros., that this medicine could be bought for less than 50 cents. They urged the proprietors to allow them to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified their good judgment, for the sale has been something remarkable.

Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all these troubles. But if by any chance it should not they will return your money.

ALICE of OLD VINCENNES

By MAURICE THOMPSON

Copyright, 1903, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

It would have been quite military had he taken the precaution to examine between the pages for something hidden there, but he did not.

"Go give it to her," he said, "and tell her I send by compliments, with great admiration of her taste in literature." He motioned the soldier to show Jean to Alice. "It's a French story," he added, addressing Helm, "enough to make a pirate blush. That's the sort of girl Mlle. Roussillon is!"

"I don't care what kind of a book she reads," blurted Helm. "She's a fine, pure, good girl. Everybody likes her. She's the good angel of this miserable frog hole of a town. You'd like her yourself if you'd straighten up and quit burning tow in your brain all the time. You're always so furious about something that you never have a chance to be just to yourself or pleasant to anybody else."

"If I had got furious at you every time there was overwhelming provocation for it," Hamilton said, "you'd have been long since hanged or shot. I fancy that I have shown angelic forbearance. I've given you somewhat more than a prisoner's freedom."

"So you have, so you have," assented Helm. "I've often been surprised at your generous partiality in my case. Let's have some hot water with something else in it. What do you say? I won't give you any more advice for five minutes by your watch."

"But I want some advice at once."

"What about?"

"That girl."

"Turn her loose. That's easy and reputable."

"I'll have to, I presume, but she ought to be punished."

"If you'll think less about punishment, revenge and getting even with everybody and everything you'll soon begin to prosper."

Hamilton winced, but smiled as one quite sure of himself.

Jean followed the soldier to a rickety log pen on the farther side of the stockade, where he found the prisoner restlessly moving about like a bird in a rustic cage. It had no comforts, that gloomy little room. There was no fireplace, the roof leaked, and the only furniture consisted of a bench to sit on and a pile of skins for a bed. Alice looked charmingly forlorn peeping out of the wraps in which she was bundled against the cold, her hair fluffed and rimped in shining disorder around her face.

The guard let Jean in and closed the door, himself staying outside.

Alice was as glad to see the poor lad as if they had been parted for a year. She hugged him and kissed his drawn little face.

"You dear, good Jean!" she murmured. "You did not forget me."

"I brought you something," he whispered, producing the book.

Alice snatched it, looked at it and then at Jean.

"Why, what did you bring this for, you silly Jean? I didn't want this. I don't like this book at all. It's hateful. I despise it. Take it back!"

"There's something in it for you, a paper with writing on it. Lieutenant Beverley wrote it on there. It's shut up between the leaves about the middle."

"Sh-s-sh! Not so loud. The guard'll hear you," Alice breathlessly whispered, her whole manner changing instantly. She was trembling, and the color had been whisked from her face as the flame from a candle in a sudden draft.

She found the note and read it a dozen times without a pause, her eyes leaping along the lines back and forth with pathetic eagerness and concentration. Presently she sat down on the bench and covered her face with her hands. A tremor first, then a convulsive sobbing shook her collapsed form. Jean regarded her with a droily sympathetic grimace, elevating his long chin and letting his head settle back between his shoulders.

"Oh, Jean, Jean!" she cried at last, looking up and reaching out her arms. "Oh, Jean, he is gone, gone, gone!"

Jean stepped closer to her while she sobbed again like a little child.

She pulled him to her and held him tightly against her breast while she once more read the note through blinding tears. The words were few, but to her they bore the message of desolation and despair. A great haunting, hollow voice in her heart repeated them until they echoed from vague distance to distance.

It was written with a bit of lead on the half of a mildewed fly leaf torn from the book:

Dear Alice—I am going away. When you read this think of me as hurrying through the wilderness to reach our army and bring it here. Be brave, as you always have been; be good, as you cannot help being; wait and watch for me; love me, as I love you. I will come. Do not doubt it. I will come, and I will crush Hamilton and his command. Courage, Alice dear; courage and wait for me. Faithfully ever, BEVERLEY.

She kissed the paper with passionate fervor, pouring her tears upon it in April showers between which the light of her eyes played almost fiercely, so poignant was her sense of a despair which bordered upon desperation.

"Gone, gone!" It was all she could think or say. "Gone, gone!"

Jean took the offending novel back home with him, hidden under his jer-kin, but Beverley's note lay upon Alice's heart, a sweet comfort and a crushing weight, when an hour later Hamilton sent for her and she was taken before him. Her face was stained with tears and she looked pitifully distressed and disheveled, yet despite all this her beauty asserted itself with subtle force.

Hamilton felt ashamed looking at her, but put on sternness and spoke without apparent sympathy:

"Miss Roussillon, you came near committing a great crime. As it is, you have done badly enough, but I wish not to be unreasonably severe. I hope you are sorry for your act and feel like doing better hereafter."

She was trembling, but her eyes looked steadily straight into his. They were eyes of baby innocence, yet they irradiated a strong womanly spirit just touched with the old perverse, mischievous light which she could neither banish nor control. When she did not make reply Hamilton continued:

"You may go home now, and I shall expect to have no more trouble on your account." He made a gesture indicative of dismissal; then, as she turned from him, he added, somewhat raising his voice:

"And, further, Miss Roussillon, that flag you took from here must positively be returned. See that it is done."

She lifted her head high and walked away, not deigning to give him a word.

"Humph! What do you think now of your fine young lady?" he demanded, turning to Helm with a sneering curl of his mouth. "She gives thanks copiously for a kindness, don't you think?"

"Poor girl! She was scared nearly out of her life," said Helm. "She got away from you like a wounded bird from a snare. I never saw a face more pitiful than hers."

"Much pity she needs, and greatly like a wounded bird she acts, I must say, but good riddance if she'll keep her place hereafter. I despise myself when I have to be hard with a woman, especially a pretty one. That girl's a saucy and fascinating mix and as dangerous as twenty men. I'll keep a watch on her movements from this on, and if she gets into mischief again I'll transport her to Detroit or give her away to the Indians. She must stop her high handed foolishness."

Helm saw that Hamilton was talking mere wind, vox et preterea nihil, and he furthermore felt that his babbling signified no harm to Alice, but Hamilton surprised him presently by saying:

"I have just learned that Lieutenant Beverley is actually gone. Did you know of his departure?"

"What are you saying, sir?"

Helm jumped to his feet, not angry, but excited.

"Keep cool. You need not answer if you prefer silence or evasion. You may want to go yourself soon."

Helm burst out laughing, but quickly growing serious said:

"Has Beverley been such a driving fool as that? Are you in earnest?"

"He killed two of my scouts, wounded another and crossed the Wabash in their canoe. He is going straight toward Kaskaskia."

"The idiot! Hurrah for him! If you catch your hare you may roast him, but catch him first, governor!"

"You'd joke out of the other corner of your mouth, Captain Helm, if I find out that you gave him aid or countenance in breaking his parole."

"Aid or countenance! I never saw him after he walked out of this room. You gave him a mighty slight more aid and countenance than I did. What are you talking about! Broke his parole! He did no such thing. He returned it to you fairly, as you well know. He told you he was going."

"Well, I've sent twenty of my swiftest Indians after him to bring him back. I'll let you see him shot. That ought to please you."

"They'll never get him, governor. I'll bet high on him against your twenty scalp lifters any day. Pittsburgh Beverley is the best Indian fighter, Daniel Boone and Simon Kenton excepted, in the American colonies."

If you are tired, broken down, despondent, worn out, pale, losing flesh, have no energy, don't feel like arising in the morning for the day's work, you should take a bottle of this wonderful medicine.

Gentlemen: It affords me no little pleasure to testify to the wonderful properties of Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron as it saved my life when the physicians said that I could not get well. Gentlemen: Having used Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron I cannot commend it too highly to others as a tonic, flesh builder and to give strength, blood and muscle. It is superior to any preparation of which I have any knowledge. I take pleasure in recommending it. Yours truly, R. W. NEWSON, Pastor M. E. Church, South.
